Fees for copies of birth, death records increasing next month

Starting next month, fees for certified copies of birth and death records in Montana will be increasing.

During the 2019 Legislature, which met earlier this year, lawmakers passed House Bill 126 that increases the fees for a certified copy of a birth certificate from $5 to $8, and a death certificate from $3 to $5.

The fee increase begins July 1.

In Lincoln County, copies of birth certificates and death certificates can be obtained from the Clerk and Recorder's Office, located at the Lincoln County Courthouse in downtown Libby.

Applications can be found online at www.lincolncountymt.us , or in person at the Clerk and Recorder's Office.

If you have any questions, please contact the Clerk and Recorder's Office by phone at 406-283-2300, by email at lcclerk@libby.org or stop by in person at the Lincoln County Courthouse.
